

Job Posting Sites

These are for searching and for watching (for updates):

General

- <https://redballoon.work> - “Free-speech employment matchmaking”
- <https://www.catholicjobs.com/> - search by state and by category
- <https://jobsforcatholics.com/jobs/> - use Job seekers tab, but also search on keywords
- <https://indeed.com/> – allows two-term searches
- <https://www.idealists.org/en/> - multiple-term searches
- <https://www.linkedin.com/> - jobs of all kinds, including remote
- <https://monster.com/> – multiple term searches
- <https://www.joinhandshake.com/> - a job service dedicated to helping college graduates find that first job. “Sign up” for the job listings.
- <https://craigslist.org/> - for localized job searches. Just go to the locale in which you are looking for a job, and click on the “jobs” link.
- Your local daily newspaper – e.g., <https://newhampshireunionleader.jobboard.io/>

Specialized - Teaching

- <https://catholicedjobs.com/> - college and primary-secondary jobs, both teaching and admin/staff; no search function (a project of Cardinal Newman Society)
- <https://catholicliberaleducation.org/employment-opportunities/>
- <https://napcis.org/jobs/> - National Assoc. of Private Catholic and Independent Schools
- <https://chestertonschoolsnetwork.org/careers> - a network of “joyfully Catholic” classical academies.
- <https://www.teachforchrist.org/> - an intern-year program
- Seton Teaching Fellows – Seton Partners - an intern-year program

Specialized – Miscellaneous

- <http://nacflm.org/joblistings/> - National Assoc. of Catholic Family Life Ministers
- Your diocesan website, e.g., <https://www.bostoncatholic.org/employment>
- Professional Associations, e.g., <https://joblink.socialworkers.org/jobs/>
