

Diocese of Palm Beach

Be part of our mission: To responsibly sustain and grow the work of the Catholic Church in caring for God's people in the five counties that comprise the Diocese of Palm Beach in Southeastern Florida. From Sebastian to Boca Raton and from Palm Beach to Okeechobee, we are united as a family of faith. In Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River and Okeechobee counties, the 225,749 Catholics of the Diocese of Palm Beach span the economic and cultural spectrum of the area and contribute to a rich and vibrant faith experience in our 50 parishes, 17 schools, 3 missions and one cemetery.

Be part of our team.

The Diocese of Palm Beach Catholic Schools are also in search of certified elementary, middle and high school teachers in various subjects as well as substitute teachers, extended care assistants etc.

For a full description of these positions and other open positions and how to apply, please visit the Diocese of Palm Beach Employment website: <https://www.diocesepb.org/employment-center/job-listings.html>

The Catholic Schools of the Diocese of Palm Beach offer a strong, competitive academic curriculum that provides students with a well-rounded educational experience and emphasizes our Catholic identity. We are committed to the development of the whole child – moral, spiritual, academic and physical. The Catholic education curriculum also involves teaching our faith and traditions to our children in their daily classroom and weekly in our parishes through Catechism classes. Our schools play a vital role in the formation of future leaders in the Church, the community and business world. Parents choose Catholic schools because they emphasize academic enrichment and moral and spiritual development for their children.

The Diocese is dedicated to providing excellent working conditions with competitive compensation in order to attract and retain an outstanding workforce.
